NEW LATEST PROGRAMME

4 CPE HOURS GAINED

BUDGET 2027

Navigating Tax, Business, and Economic Developments

27 November 2026 (Friday), 9.00 am – 1.30 pm
Wyndham Grand Bangsar Kuala Lumpur

Budget 2027 comes at an important stage in Malaysia's economic development, as businesses navigate evolving economic conditions, rising costs, technological transformation, and changing policy priorities. The programme will provide participants with insights into the key highlights and developments arising from Budget 2027, with a focus on their implications for businesses and the broader economy.

Through presentations, a panel discussion, and an interactive Q&A session, participants will gain perspectives on key tax, business and economic developments, while exploring how organisations can navigate emerging challenges and identify opportunities arising from Budget 2027. The session will also provide a platform for meaningful discussion and an exchange of perspectives on Malaysia's evolving business landscape.

PROGRAMME SPEAKERS

ELIAS MOHAMMAD.

Elias is a Partner in Global Compliance & Reporting at Ernst & Young Tax Consultants Sdn. Bhd., with over 17 years of expertise in corporate income tax compliance and advisory. A licensed tax agent and HRD Corp accredited trainer, he works closely with Malaysia's Ministry of Finance, Inland Revenue Board, and regulatory authorities. His diverse portfolio spans multinationals, government-linked companies, listed groups, and corporations across industries including property, manufacturing, telecommunications, banking, and hospitality. Elias has led tax planning, restructuring, GST implementation, and corporate governance projects, while advising on cross-border investments, withholding tax, and real property gains tax. He is also an active speaker and moderator at tax seminars, workshops, and universities, contributing to Malaysia's evolving tax landscape. Elias holds a Degree in Accountancy from MARA Technology University.

FARAH ROSLEY

Farah is Malaysia Tax Managing Partner at Ernst & Young Tax Consultants Sdn. Bhd. and former President of the Chartered Tax Institute of Malaysia (2019–2022). With over 25 years' experience, she advises multinational and public companies across diverse sectors on corporate tax, cross-border transactions, and government initiatives. Farah has led engagements with the Inland Revenue Board of Malaysia on tax governance and e-Invoicing, shaping national tax policies. A strong advocate for developing future professionals, she launched EY's Young Tax Professional of the Year programme in Malaysia. She is a sought-after speaker, media commentator, and published author.

JALBIR SINGH RIAR

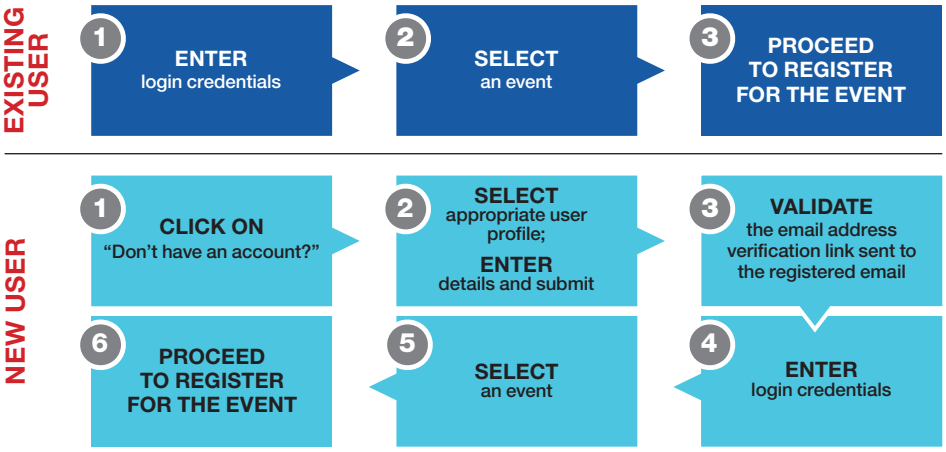

Jalbir is a Partner in Indirect Tax at Ernst & Young Tax Consultants Sdn. Bhd., with over 18 years of expertise in indirect tax and global trade advisory. He specialises in GST, service tax, sales tax, excise duty, customs regulations, and cross-border trade strategies. His work spans compliance reviews, tax planning, HS code classification, and securing exemptions, refunds, and binding rulings across industries such as automotive, pharmaceuticals, energy, and food & beverage. Jalbir has advised on Free Zones, Licensed Warehouses, Free Trade Agreements, and ASEAN-wide tax efficiency, while contributing to national projects and policy evaluations. He has built strong ties with government agencies and delivered training with the Royal Malaysian Customs Department and Ministry of Finance. Jalbir holds a Bachelor of Arts (Hons) in Accounting and Finance from the University of East London and a Certificate in Company Administration from the International Islamic University Malaysia.
